A Note:

Happy March!

This digest is meant to inform you about some of the most noteworthy literary events happening on and around campus. As always, this is just a selection. If you hear about an event or series that you would like to see included, or you can think of a way to make this digest better, please send me an email. I would love for this digest to represent the diverse interests and passions of ANZ.

Enjoy!

Alpha Nu Zeta is Stony Brook University’s chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, the international English honor society. If you are interested in applying to ANZ, please contact us for more information. Note, though, that you do not have to be a member to participate in our meetings/functions or to attend any of the events listed below.
Further Suggestions

While curating this list, I often get great suggestions from students and faculty. Not all of these have relevant events each month, however. Here is a list of some useful programs/websites to check out when looking for something to do!

- The Morgan Library & Museum: themorgan.org As you have probably noticed, the Pierpont Morgan frequently makes my list. It is a wonderful, accessible cultural resource.

- NYC Center for Book Arts: centerforbookarts.org

- Red Bull Theater in NYC: redbulltheater.com Red Bull puts on Tudor-Stuart non-Shakespearean plays

- The NY Public Library: nyp.org

- Universities! Make use of NYU, Columbia, CUNY (specifically the graduate center), The New School–the list could go on and on. There are so many great (and free!) events happening just a train ride away!
